

Special Council Meeting
September 26, 2006

Mayor Marse called to order the second special scheduled council meeting of September 26, 2006 at 6:15 pm.

Members Present: Mayor J.M. Marse, Council members Jean Arrant, Mike Helton, Ray Jackson, and Earl King. Also present: City Clerk Robin Haynes. Council member Charlie Simmons arrived at 7:00 pm.

Invocation and Pledge of Allegiance were recited at the meeting at 6:00 pm and were not repeated.

The purpose of the special scheduled meeting was to interview applicants for the utility billing position. Mayor Marse spoke to the applicants as a group and then asked them to wait to be called to be interviewed individually. The applicants interviewed were:

- Dottie Breitenbucher
- Jessica Cook
- Denise Piasecki
- Frances Tullis

After interviewing and discussion between council, council decided to attempt to contact a few more applicants for interview. Applicants interviewed tonight would be held until after interviewing the new applicants. At that time, a decision would be made between all interviewed applicants.

Councilman King motioned to contact additional applicants for interview, Councilman Jackson seconded. There was no public or additional council discussion, the motion carried 5-0.

With no other business, Councilman Helton motioned to adjourn at 7:25 p.m.
